

COMMUNITY WORKSHOP ON VIOLENCE PREVENTION, HIV, HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE LAW

Kisii County, Kenya. 26-27 April 2018

Training objectives

The key objectives of the training include:

- To enhance participants understanding of the linkages between violence prevention, HIV and human rights;
- To increase support for key populations' access to justice in the context of HIV;
- To strengthen the capacity of the key population community in responding to cases of violence.

DAY ONE

Time	Agenda Item
0800 - 0830	Arrival and registration of Participants	KELIN
0830 - 0845	Introduction, Climate Setting, Objectives and expected results from the workshop	Ted Wandera KELIN
0845 -0900	Welcome and Opening remarks	James Kirwa CASCO Kisii County

Session One:

0900 – 0910	Video Session: Condoms as Evidence – A video by the Open Society Foundation depicting Sex workers from Kenya, Russia, South Africa, United States, and Zimbabwe talk about what it means when police confiscate or destroy their condoms
-------------	--

Agenda

Time	Agenda Item
	Violence and vulnerability: Introduction to incidences, statistics and reports of violence against key populations
0910 - 1000	By the end of the session, participants will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand how violence increases key population's HIV vulnerability • Understand the roles of power , force/violence and consent in social relations • Be able to differentiate between myths and facts about gender roles and violence • Understand confidentiality • Have an overview of how to plan a violence prevention and response intervention 	Enosh Abuya
1000 - 1015	Health Break
1015 – 1115	Session Two:	Dr Bosire KMA
	Failure to protect: Demystifying common forms of violence against key populations. By the end of this session participants will be able to : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • List the types of violence specific to KPs • Identify common perpetrators of violence • Explain the causes of and factors contributing to violence • Explain the effects of violence, including its impact on HIV vulnerability. • Medical Aspects of Violence – Case Study of the Anal testing Case and Kisii Sex Workers Case
1115 - 1215	Session Three:	Ted Wandera KELIN
	Violence and the Law
	By the end of the session, participants will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have a grasp of the History of Human Rights and what are Human Rights. • Have an understanding of the Constitution and How it Protects the Rights of Key Populations • Have a grasp of Punitive Laws and how they affect

Agenda

Time	Agenda Item
	Key Populations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have a grasp of laws that protect key populations from violence.
1215- 1315	Session Four : Violence Prevention and response to violence By the end of the session participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand the health , emotional, social and security needs of survivors from the point of view of the survivor • Know the kinds, symptoms and consequences of trauma. • Recognize the importance of basic survivor assistance (response) services. Be able to set up a violence response system.	Dotty Agalla KISWA
1315 – 1415	Lunch Break
1415-1600	Session Five Response to Violence Within the Devolved Structures By the end of this session participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand and recollect health operations under a centralized government • Understand the Constitution 2010 and the right to health. • Understand and conceptualize the legal framework to implementing health as a devolved function • Understanding devolved structures and their response to violence • County Police Structures and how they respond to violence • County Health structures and their response to violence 	Dr Stella Bosire KMA
1600	TEA AND DEPARTURE

End of day one

Agenda

Time	Agenda Item
DAY TWO
0800- 0830	Arrival and Registration of Participants	KELIN
0830-0900	Recap of day one	Rapporteur
Session Six		Ted Wandera KELIN
0900-1000	Legal redress mechanisms in response to violence and health rights violations. By the end of this session participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify bodies or centers at the national and county level to access legal services or redress in cases of violence or health rights violations • Understand the proper procedure to follow in access legal and health services in cases of violence and health rights violations.
1000-1015	Health Break
Session Seven		Dotty Agalla KISWA
1015-1115	Community engagement and advocacy tactics against violence on key populations. By the end of this session participants will be able to : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand the principles of community engagement for effective advocacy. • Understand advocacy tactics for communities in responding to violence.
Session Eight		Ted Wandera KELIN
1115-1315	From principle to practice: Responding to Violence By the end of the session participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand Health and Safety Needs after Violence • Have knowledge on responding to survivors of violence • Learn the process of documenting human rights violations using a documentation tool.

Agenda

Time	Agenda Item
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learn the basic concepts to factor in when documenting human rights violations. • An understanding of the REACT Program
1315-1400	LUNCH
	MODERATOR
Session Nine
1400-1500	Development of a violence response system (Group work) Group presentations.	Enosh Abuya and Stella Bosire
Session Ten
1500-1600	ACTION PLANING AND WAY FORWARD	Ted Wandera (KELIN)
1600	TEA AND DEPARTURE	